Couture Costume for Young Set Accents High Empire Interest

PRINTED PATTERN M 164 by Patti Reifer

From age one and up, the look all mothers of young fashionables adore is the high-rise EMPIRE—especially in Patti Reifer's charming dress-and-coat duo. A little girl will fall in love with the fanfare of pleats on the dress, the gay flutter of the back of the coat as she turns to make a graceful exit at a birthday party. The designer chose fine linen for the coat—a gay butterfly print cotton for the dress. "I'd like to see it too, in sheer wool and silk, or all in bright cotton for summer," says Miss Reifer. It's a delight to sew, as well as to see—a minimum of seams, and even the pleats are easy to set in.

Printed Pattern M164 is available in Children's sizes 2, 4, 6, 8. Size 6 dress requires 1¾ yards 35-inch fabric; the coat requires 2¾ yards 35-inch.

Send One Dollar for Printed Pattern M164 to The Daily Colonist Pattern Department, 60 Front Street West, Toronto. Ont. Please print plainly your name, address with zone, style number and size.

Next week—Watch for a Prominent Designer Pattern by Esteves.
